

CS 402 – Homework 3

1. Elevator Pitch

Growing up in the 21st century, tic tac toe has always been a fun game in our childhood. But you are probably bored of playing the same old game for kids because it is not challenging and satisfying to win anymore like when you were four, right? Then let me introduce to you a game that is a better, more fun, more challenging version of tic tac toe: Gobblet Gobblers!.

Gobblet Gobblers! will be available on Google Play store soon with many features, such as: playing versus AI with different difficulties, playing with friends and an online PvP system.

2. App title: Gobblet Gobblers!

3. App description: This game is like 3x3 tic tac toe, but you can take over other player's spot with a bigger piece. Each player has 3 large pieces, 3 medium pieces and 3 small pieces. The larger piece can be placed over the smaller one. You can also move your piece that is already placed if there is no other piece on top of it.

The app will have 4 main features:

- playing versus AI with different difficulties
- playing with a friend on same device
- an online PvP matchmaking system'
- Leaderboard of the server
